

What's in your

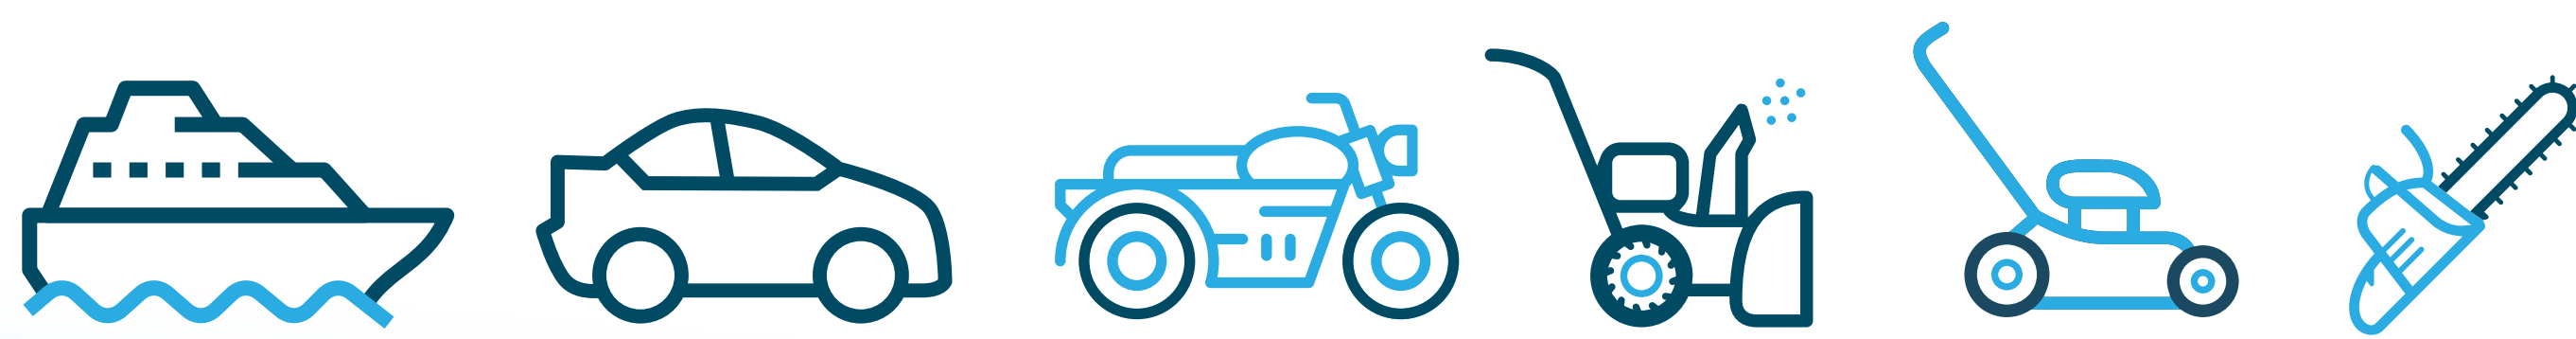

BARREL

Crude Oil Refined Products Breakdown

Most people are unaware that the gas in their car comes from the same barrel of crude oil that makes the asphalt we walk on or jet fuel. A standard 42-gallon barrel of crude oil yields approximately 45 gallons of salable refined products that make up products we use every day.

45%
Gasoline

Boats
Consumer Cars
Motorcycles
Powertools
Small Engines

25%
Ultra-Low Sulfur Diesel

Agriculture Equipment

Heavy-Duty Transportation

Home Heating

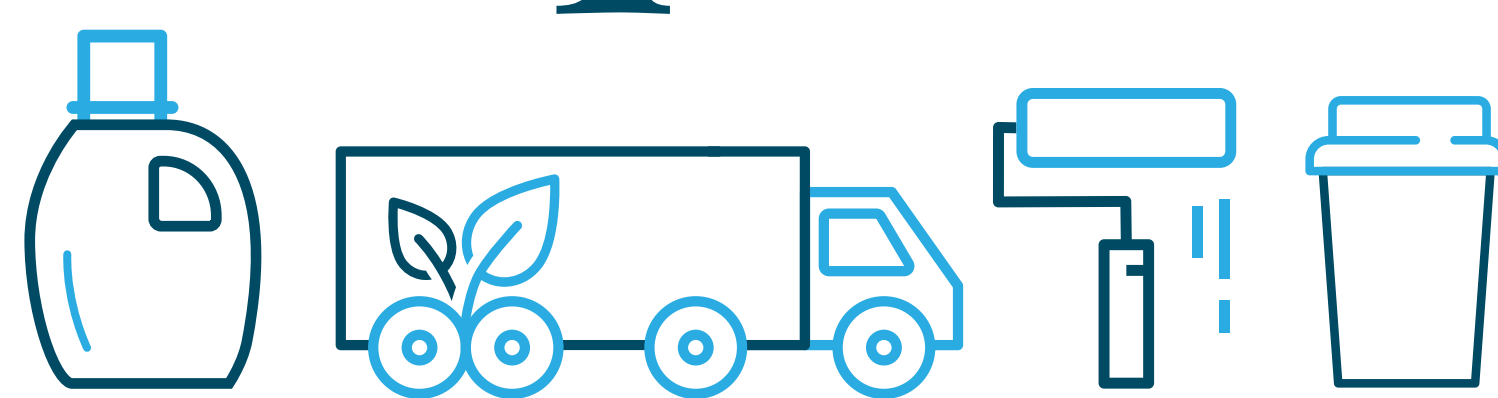

Refridgerated Equipment

9%
Kerosine & Jet Fuel

Cook Stoves
Lamps
Heaters
Planes

40%
Hydrocarbon Gas Liquids

Detergents

Paints & Solvents

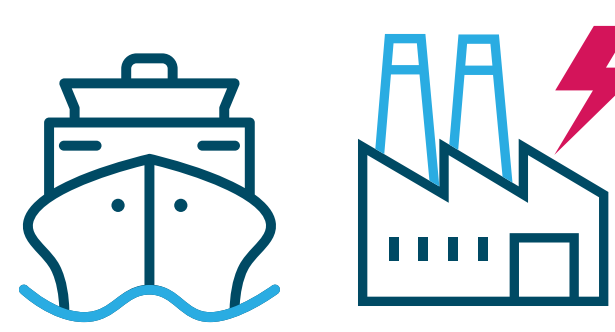

Propane

Natural Gas Trucks

Plastic Products

Synthetic Rubber

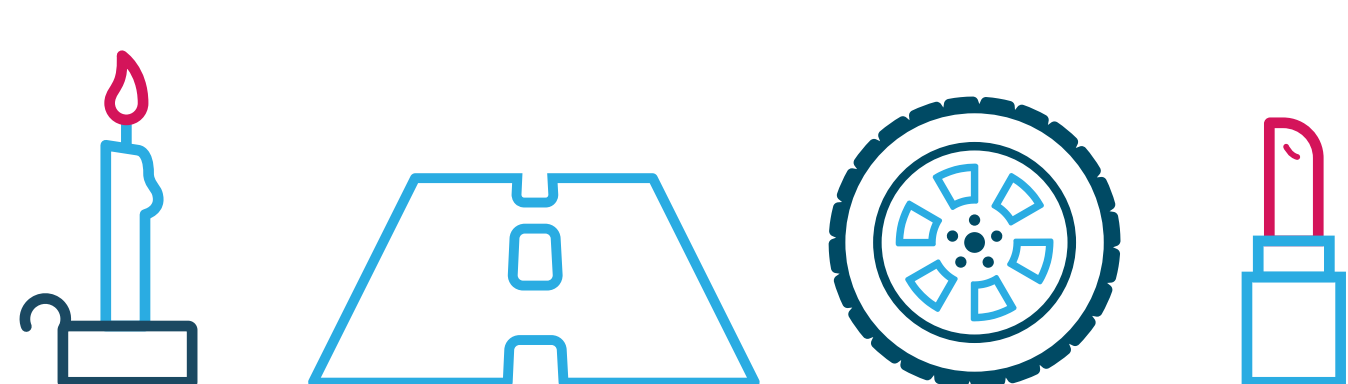

2%
Residual Fuel

Steam-powered Vessels & Bunker Fuel

Powerplants & Electric Generation

13%
Other Products

Asphalt
Lipstick
Tires
Waxes